

Monday, November 21, 2011

Queenstown Times

Otago Daily Times

<http://digital.queenstowntimes.co.nz>

Remarkables effort . . .

Some of the 400 entrants in the 2011 New World Wakatipu Trail Blazer set off from Jacks Point, near Queenstown, on Friday evening. The event, the major fundraiser for the Queenstown Trails Trust, raised $177,000. This was matched by the trustees of the late Peter Wilding's estate, whose gift, along with some additional donations, took the grand total to $360,500. Inset: Cheering the competitors on were (from left) Sharon Carpenter, of Kelvin Heights, Gillian Paape, of Arrowtown, Susan Stevens, of Gibbston, and Mary Harrison, of Lake Hayes. Story and more photos ● Page 7

PHOTOS: TRACEY ROXBURGH

